

Strategic Diversity for Leaders
September 25 and 26, 2007
9AM to 5PM
at Techmart Santa Clara

SIGN UP TODAY!

This two-day enlightening seminar is taught on a coaching model that stresses individualized solutions. Each participant will leave with their own action steps for pushing the agenda forward in their company, based on classroom discussion; one-on-one and group feedback, and use of Leading Edge assessment tools.

Participants will leave the seminar knowing how to:

- Evaluate the effectiveness of your organization's diversity efforts.
- Create diversity goals that tie to your organization's business and strategic priorities.
- Position your organization for recognition as a top diversity performer.

For more information and to enroll TODAY, visit www.leadingedgeassociates.net or call 408.997.2905

About Leading Edge Associates:

The highly seasoned facilitators bring a strong track record of concrete results.

Rafael Gonzalez, an executive coach and consultant for more than 30 years, is co-author of "Dynamics of Diversity" and has done work for organizations such as Hewlett Packard, Motorola, AT&T, Texas Instruments, Knight Ridder, Tribune Co. and the United Nations.

Larry Olmstead, former managing editor of the Miami Herald, served twice as diversity officer for Knight Ridder, which repeatedly won awards as among the Top 50 diversity companies in the U.S.

The Network Meeting Center in Silicon Valley's TechMart is the leading day meeting facility in Northern California. Located at: 5201 Great America Parkway, Suite #122 Santa Clara, California 95054
www.networkmeetingcenter.com